TO THE VOTERS OF ALABAMA

The Municipal Officials of Cullman, Hanceville, Garden City, and Holly Pond, the Judge of Probate and the County Commissioners of Cullman County, together with a host of other citizens are appealing to the voters of the State to help them defeat Amendment 23 in the State Election on Tuesday, December 6th, 1955.

These officials and citizens feel that this amendment will drive away new industry that might want to settle here. — Cullman aiready has a 361/2 mill tax and to pass this amendment would put an additional 20-mill tax on the property owners. This would be a great burden for the taxpayers to bear.

Also objectionable is the fact this amendment would not allow a vote of the local citizens, and it would place much power in the hands of a few.

PLEASE VOTE "NO" ON AMENDMENT 23

A Ten-Year Record of Industrial Development

From 1945 through 1954, 277 industries, each employing 10 or more persons, or having a capital investment of $50,000 or more each, have been established in territory served by Alabama Power Company. The invested capital in these plants amounts to $261,222,000 and their establishment resulted in the employment of 50,507 persons.

The greatest volume of industrial growth during any year of Alabama's history took place in 1955. In this year alone, 54 new plants or expansions have been announced for our service area. They represent

Some of the plants established in the service area of Alabama Power Company were branch plants of industries with main offices located elsewhere; some were expansions of existing industries; and others were newly formed with local capital. Among them were metals, paper, wood products, machinery, chemicals, textiles,

Why Did They Locate in Alabama?

The reasons why these plants located here perhaps are as diverse as the nature of the industries represented. Among important reasons have been

- 1. Accessibility to the ever-increasing important Southern markets
- 2. Good transportation facilities by rail, highway.
- 3. The availability of the kind of amployees needed
